DECEMBER 2018 – NEWSLETTER

Volume 20, No. 36

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.

After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight. They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."
(Acts 1:9-11)

One of my favorite seminary professors would always say, "I love cloudy days. Because on cloudy days I'm always looking for Jesus!"

Just think about that. What a sight that would be!

Advent. It's a season of hope. It's a time of preparation. Advent is a Latin word that means, "coming". It is for us to prepare for the coming of Jesus. Most often we think of Advent as our preparation for Jesus coming as the Christ Child in the manger at Christmas.

God's Son coming into the world. As the angels proclaimed, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace to those on whom his favor rests." The one whom the shepherds rushed to see and returned to their fields glorifying God. The one whom the wise men traveled to great lengths to come and worship. The one of whom it was told, "He will be Son of the Most High and his kingdom will have no end." The one who would be called "Immanuel", which means, "God with us." The one of whom Isaiah said was to be called, "Wonderful Counselor, Prince of Peace, Mighty God, Everlasting Father." The one of whom Isaiah spoke would reign on David's throne and over his kingdom with justice and righteousness.

But it is also a time for us look with hope, anticipating the Advent, or coming of Jesus coming on the clouds when he returns at the end of the age in all his glory ushering in the kingdom of God in all its fullness! When he will make all things new. It will be a time when there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain. A time when there will be no more hunger or poverty or thirst or oppression or racism or violence or war or bullying or neglect... It will be a time when God's love, compassion, care, acceptance, grace, forgiveness will embody us all.

Yes...what a sight that will be!

So...hang on to the promise. Hang on to the hope. Hang on to the joy. Hang on to the anticipation. So when it's cloudy outside...keep a lookout for Jesus...he may be coming...and when he does...don't be surprised!

Have a blessed Advent Season!

Surfin' on God's Grace!

Pastor Dan

Youth Ministries:

The youth group had a great time in Boone last month! We were able to hike both Saturday and Sunday as well as serve dinner at the Hospitality House! Sunday morning we were able to attend the church service at Grace Lutheran. This retreat was a time for us to grow closer as a youth group as well as have some spiritual renewal through some fun devotions and activities! The students created their own "Created in Christ" collages that we will have displayed in the church. These collages are meant to inspire the students by finding positive words and images (from magazine clippings) that they see in themselves as well as things they hope to one day accomplish. We took a ton of photos! You can check them out on our KMLC Youth facebook page, as well as a few in this months newsletter!

Youth group will resume Sunday, December 2nd from 11:30-1:00!! For the month of December we will be having some lessons on giving. If any of the students are free Saturday, December 8th from 10 to noon I would love some help leading our family ministries Advent celebration!!

Family Ministries:

Our family ministries Advent Christmas Celebration is this month!! Advent means, "the coming of Jesus", and we want to celebrate Him! There will be Advent and Christmas themed games, crafts, snacks, and of course, cookie decorating! Our celebration is Saturday, December 8th from 10 AM until noon in the fellowship hall! Bring your friends!!

Special Note:

I wanted to thank everyone within our congregation for praying for me over the month of November. It was a very busy month! I started the month taking the youth on our fall retreat to Boone, a few days after that I left for the National Youth Workers convention in St. Louis! It was not only an educational time for me as a youth worker but also a time of spiritual renewal for myself. I also built many connections with people all over the United States, it was a great feeling being surrounded by 5,000 other people that do what I do, and love also love doing it!

The Season of Advent has arrived! The first Sunday of Advent is December 2! Advent Devotions are available in the narthex. Be sure to pick one up! In addition to Sunday morning, be sure to join us for our midweek Advent Services each Wednesday at 7pm! Check out the schedule below:

December 5: Holden Evening Prayer with a reflection on the theme: "Patience".

December 12: KML Preschool Children's Christmas Program will be the centerpiece of our worship together! Not to be missed! Join us with the preschool families in the fellowship hall at 6pm for fellowship and a light meal!

December 19: Holden Evening Prayer with the theme: "Promise".

Our Annual Rice Collection for the Help Center Christmas Food Baskets has been a huge success so far! Each year Kure Memorial is asked to provide 2 pound bags of rice for the Christmas Food Baskets that the Help Center distributes each year to the financially fragile individuals and families in the Carolina Beach/Kure Beach communities. This year they plan on preparing 148 Christmas Baskets and we've been asked to collect 148 bags of rice. It has been fun to have our annual contest to see which side of the sanctuary will collect the most! We...as of the end of worship on November 25, we had collected a total of 155 two pound bags!! (north side: 72 south side: 83) All I can say to that is "WOW"! What an amazing example of KMLC's generosity for our community! Sunday, December 2 is the last Sunday to bring in your rice. On Sunday, December 9, we will share the final results of the competition and award prizes for 1st place and 2nd place! So you want to be sure to be present at worship that day!

Kure Beach Christmas Show: The annual Christmas show is coming up the weekend of December 7, 8 and 9! There are several folks from church to come out to see! Tammy Ebersole, Butch Von Cannon, Kristin, Donovan and Olivia Woodie, Sydney Maguire, Nick Schwenker, Kayleigh Robinson, Chris Creech, Dottie Drummond and Mia Shoffner. We encourage you to come out see the show! Hope to see you at Oceanfront Park! The show begins at 7:00 pm on Friday and Saturday and 5pm on Sunday.

December Men's Breakfast: Come join us on Saturday, December 22 at 8:30am for a great breakfast, fun conversation and a meaningful devotion! Pastor Dan will be there at 7:30am to start cooking! So if you have something you want to bring or anything you want to contribute...please contact Pr. Dan! We would love to have you come early to help or have coffee and visit! See you on the 22nd!

Christmas Eve Worship Services: Join us for worship on Christmas Eve at either 7 or 11pm! Or join us for both if you like! Our 7pm service is our family service which will include a telling of the Christmas story around a camp fire on the front lawn by the gazebo, followed by a procession into the sanctuary where we will sing traditional Christmas carols, read scripture, hear and reflect on the Christmas message, and have a special time for children! It will also include singing Silent Night by candlelight and celebrating Holy Communion! Our 11pm service will be a more traditional Christmas Eve worship service also with candlelight and Holy Communion. We look forward to seeing you on Christmas Eve.

Blue Christmas Service of Care, Hope and Healing: Please join us on Thursday, December 20, beginning at 7pm, as we gather for a Blue Christmas Service of Care, Hope and Healing. This is a service of comfort and hope for all of us, but especially for those who find this time of year filled with sadness, grief and sorrow. Please invite your family members and friends to gather for a time of comfort and support.

Church Decorating is scheduled for Sunday, December 2 following worship! Please join us as we beautify the church and grounds for the Advent and Christmas seasons! We will be setting up the Christmas tree in the sanctuary and putting the lights on it on Saturday morning, December 1 beginning at 10am, so if you would like to stop by to help out, that would be great! Thanks so much!

Children's Sunday school continues every Sunday following the Children's Time. The children will be learning about various characters in the Christmas story. They engage in games, activities and crafts that help them relate to the story. Pass the word. We would love to share that ministry with others! If any of you would like to assist or teach, let Pr. Dan know! We will not have Children's Sunday School on December 23 or December 30!

We still have Attractions Books for sale! If you haven't already purchased yours, here is your chance!! Attractions Books are still for sale for $25 per book, of which Kure Memorial gets $10 of that! All proceeds will go toward our next trip to Costa Rica in 2020! Please see Pastor Dan after worship or give him a call at 910-619-8979 to get your copy(ies)! You can also stop by the church office to get them! Thank you for your support!

Adult Sunday School Study: We are resuming our Sunday school this Sunday, December 2 with a discussion of an article that was in the Living Lutheran Magazine entitled, "By the Light of Grace; How does the ELCA understand heaven and hell?" We will draw from many scripture passages that make reference to each. Hope you will join us. If you are interested, either in joining us or simply in reading the article, please check out the link below and it should take you directly to the article we will be discussing!

https://www.qgdigitalpublishing.com/publication/?i=525634#{%22issue_id%22:525634,%22page%22:14}

Then for Sunday school on December 9, 16 and 23 we will be discussing passages that speak of the coming of Jesus, from Isaiah 9, Luke 1, Matthew 1 and 2. These will be great passages to inspire our anticipation for the birth of Jesus and his coming at the end of time! I hope you will join us.

Friday Morning Book Group -We meet Friday mornings 9:30AM to 10:30AM. We are reading Nickel and Dimed: on (not) getting by in America written by Barbara Ehrenreich. Written from her perspective as an undercover journalist, it sets out to investigate the impact of the 1996 welfare reform act on the working poor in United States. All are welcome to join us! Any questions and for the location of our next meeting call Becky Wetzel at 571-230-6289.

Women's Bible Study and Outreach Group: We will NOT meet in December; we will re-group in January on Tuesday January 8th at 9:30am in the church library. We are still selling "Lenten Soup Supper Recipe Books". They are $3.00 each and make great Christmas gifts! The Women's Bible Study and Outreach group would like to thank everyone who bought a cookbook. We are giving $100.00 to the Sunday Street Feed and using some of the other proceeds to help the needy.

Beer and Hymns at the Good Hops Brewery! Join us December 16th @6pm at the Good Hops Brewing Company in Carolina Beach for the next "Beer and Hymns" evening! It's a fun time together to mix and mingle in a casual setting, drink a beverage or two and either listen to or sing along with some familiar and sometimes not so familiar hymns! This month will be the Christmas carol sing along!

North Carolina Synod Bishop Tim Smith will be visiting Kure Memorial! Please mark your calendars for Sunday, January 27! Bishop Tim (and hopefully his wife, Wendy!) will be with us that weekend to worship with us and get a chance to meet our community of faith! He is excited to be with us and get to know us! The last time we had a visit from our bishop was in August of 2001! So this will be a real joy for us to host him! I hope you will set that weekend aside to be sure to be with us!

Kure Memorial Endowment Fund: In the aftermath of Hurricane Florence let me remind you of the three general categories of the Endowment Fund. (1) Education, Including Scholarships, (2) Community Outreach and (3) Disaster Relief. In this third category to which I am calling your attention. If you need or know of any member of the KMLC family that needs financial help due to Hurricane Florence please let Pastor Dan or Todd Vought know.

Reminder about our staffed nursery: Do you know any families with children through age 2, who would love to come to worship here at Kure Memorial, but are hesitant because they have young children and would like a safe place for them to play when they get a little active during worship? Or maybe parents who are slowly trying to introduce their children to experiencing our worship experience? Please invite them to join us on Sunday mornings and let them know that we now have a staffed nursery, for families just like them! Their children can spend as little or as much time in the nursery as they need to. We love to have all of our family members worshipping with us, but sometimes that may not be possible. The nursery is located in the south preschool room. Chandler Von Cannon and Erica Little are our nursery staff, along with a youth helper who will assist as needed.

Sunday Lunch: Join us in this weekly ministry! Give a hand with sandwich preparations during fellowship hour. Join us as we share the lunches with our neighbors in the Carolina Beach area. Help us “behind the scenes” by shopping or setting up on Sunday morning before service. Contact Jean Graff-309-339-9272-call, text, email kjeb415@charter.net, or just talk with me at church!

Kure Memorial Facebook Page: Make sure you check out our Facebook page and "like" us to stay up to date with what is going on here at Kure Memorial! With our new Facebook page we will be posting upcoming events and have updates on mission trips, beach services, etc. as well as highlights of past events! We look forward to keeping you connected! Eventually we even plan to video our worship services live on "Facebook Live"! This way, your family and friends from around the world can tune in and join us for worship at 10am on Sunday mornings! Stay tuned for more information. Check us out: <https://www.facebook.com/Kure-Memorial-Lutheran-Church-113882918643415/>

Don't forget to check out our website: kmlc.org! It has been refreshed, revised and renewed and will continue to be updated! It is looking great, with information about our ministries, photos, directions on how to get here...all kinds of things. Eventually, there will be lots of photos and other information to share with you! Please check it out and make it your homepage!!

Synod ENews: The North Carolina Synod sends out a weekly “e-news”, via email to keep us up to date on things going on with the Lutheran church throughout the state! It is very informative and you will see several things you can get involved in at the synod level! To subscribe to the weekly “e-news”, go to the synod homepage: www.nclutheran.org. Go to the bottom right corner of the page where it says: “Subscribe to our synod e-newsletters” and click where it says: “Click to Join” and put in your name and email address. It's pretty simple! The synod website also has many resources for adults, teens and families. Please check out: <http://www.vibrantfaithathome.org/library/library-by-category-col-150/library-category-bible-story> for online devotions for a variety of uses!

Katie B. Hines Senior Center: The center will be hosting a Christmas dinner and is in need of the following; 2-Turkeys, 1-Ham, 20lbs.-potatoes, 5-Cooked pies, 4lbs.-butter. Please deliver these items by Friday, December 21st. Dinner will be served at 12:00 noon on Monday, December 24th, there is no charge but the center will welcome any donations. For more information contact Sarah Williams at 440-376-9685.

Discipleship Committee: The Discipleship Team has been very busy lately, determining our goals for 2019 and putting together our ministry plan for next year. We hope to have at least one activity each month that will bring us together socially and also provide opportunities to grow in the knowledge, understanding, and support of each other as the Body of Christ.

- On Sunday, December 2nd we will be decorating the church sanctuary, gazebo, and the fellowship hall. Following worship we will gather in the fellowship hall for coffee and birthday cake (1st Sunday is Birthday Sunday). We hope that everyone will be able to stay and help decorate, or help put together our gift baskets (for our church members who may not be able to join us). When we are finished decorating we will get together for lunch in the fellowship hall. Food and beverages will be provided, but if you wish to bring something you can bring some homemade cookies for the gift baskets.

One of our goals for next year is to become a Creation Care Congregation. It is a program of identification with the goals and mission of Lutherans Restoring Creation. It is a commitment program. That is, we are invited to put together a mission statement for our congregation and then carry it out as well as we can. We will be responsible only to ourselves and to the Earth community for what we do and how we do it. Over the next few months we will be sharing information about the program and asking for interested volunteers to help get the program started. We already do many things that are part of the program and hope to develop a plan to do even more. This program will count and celebrate everything we have already done, provide some structure to our efforts, and enable us to act in solidarity with other Lutheran congregations. Stay tuned for more next month!

Help Center needs for December: 2-lb bags of rice, soup, pasta sauce, tea bags, dried pasta, and any other canned or packaged food items and toiletries are deeply appreciated. As you bring your gifts of food forward to place them in the baskets on the altar, you are invited to say a special prayer for those who will receive your gift! Sanctuary doors are open daily, 8am to 8pm. If you have some time to give and can assist our friends here, contact Becky Wetzal at 571-230-6289.

From our Financial Secretary on November Contributions: :

For the month of November, we counted on receiving $15,040 in Tithes and Offerings to support our Mission Plan. This is based on $3,760 a week x 4 weeks. Our actual contributions were $13,510 - about $1,500 below our projected needs. We thank everyone who continues to generously support our Mission Plan by sharing time, talents and resources.

We have received the Tithe and Offering Envelopes for 2019. We hope to distribute the boxes of envelopes sometime in mid-December.

Community News:

Open Enrollment Period for Medicare: Medicare's Open Enrollment Period will soon be ending. The time for reviewing and changing your Prescription Drug Plans for 2019 continues through December 7th.

Take time to review your coverage and perhaps find a less costly plan for yourself. The SHIIP Office at the New Hanover Senior Resource Center is currently scheduling appointments with certified SHIIP Counselors. Call 910-798-6400 to schedule your appointment. Also, Eleanor Lundy (910-667-2244) and Terry Hambel (910-769-1761) are certified SHIIP Counselors and are available to assist you during Open Enrollment. Feel free to give them a call.

Holiday Market: Shop for art and crafts and some specialty food items on December 1 from 9am-3pm at Carolina Beach Lake. There will be live music and surprise visitors!

Christmas by the Sea: The Carolina Beach Boardwalk area will be decorated and brightly lit every night during the holiday season. Visit with Santa in his workshop for cookies and hot chocolate, listen to storytelling by a fire, roast some marshmallows by the fire pit, listen to caroling, kids can enjoy pony rides (December 1st, 8th and 15th) and an arts and crafts area with ornament making fun. Come celebrate the holidays with Christmas by the Sea. This is a free event and will be held from 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM (some activities are weather permitting).

Island of Lights New Year's Eve Countdown & Fireworks: 9pm at the Kure Beach Boardwalk. Don't miss the giant beach ball being dropped at midnight followed by a spectacular fireworks demonstration. This free family-friendly event will feature a DJ and dancing with refreshments and party favors available for purchase. In an Island of Lights tradition there will be a raffle, with the winner taking home the original artwork for the Island of Lights 2017 official Christmas card and ornament.
