MAY 2021 – NEWSLETTER

Volume 20, No. 65

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.

"I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep, and my sheep know me." (John 10:14)

Our preschoolers had some special visitors on Monday! There was a family who were staying in the house next to the parsonage for a few days. They have a small farm in Virginia. They brought with them two, one week old baby lambs! They were sooooo cute! The family offered to bring the lambs over to show the preschoolers and to tell them a little bit about them and how they care for them. They told the children about how they feed them and protect them. How they keep them clean and make sure they are safe. It was such a special treat. I don't know who were more excited to see the lambs...the children...or the teachers and me!

The love and care that this family had for these little sheep...who didn't want to stray too far from their caregivers...made me think of these words of Jesus, that he is the Good Shepherd. And he knows us and loves us and cares for us and protects us. If we stray too far...he will come to find us and bring us back to his fold. And because the Good Shepherd knows us...he knows when we are happy and healthy...when life is good and when we are filled with joy. And because the Good Shepherd knows us...even more importantly...he knows when we are struggling with life, when we have situations that can be overwhelming, when our health isn't the best. He knows when we are needed by others and when we need strength to make it through another day. He knows when we are sad and discouraged and have lost hope.

He knows us better than we know ourselves. And he is there for us to fill us with hope, to bring us joy just knowing he is there to support and help us in the midst of our struggles! He is there to heal us as he knows best. He is there to fill us with peace and grace when life is overwhelming. He is there to give us guidance when we are lost and to bring us back to him when we wander.

You know, this image of these baby sheep was a great image of how Jesus cares for us, loves us and guides us. And seeing ourselves as these lambs made me realize just how much we rely on the love and care that Jesus, our Lord and Savior has for us!

Surfin' on God's Grace!

Pastor Dan

Costa Rica Shoe Challenge! We would like to thank everyone for your support during our shoe collection challenge! Although we did not reach our goal of 2500 pairs of shoes, we were so blessed by the contributions from so many of you! We don't have the final number, but at this point we have collected around 1200 pairs of shoes! Which is remarkable!! We will earn several hundred dollars from this fundraiser, but even more importantly...the recipients of these shoes you so generously donated will be able to sell them to help support themselves and their families! So...Thank you so much!!

Monthly Men's Breakfast is back! For the last several months, our men's group has been gathering for "Coffee and Conversation" in the side lawn area of the church. The group decided to begin the "Men's Breakfast" again beginning in May. So...on May 22 we will gather in the fellowship hall for breakfast. The tables will be spread out more that before, and we will seat only 2 people per table. Also, rather than cooking at the church, please bring a dish that you have cooked at home! The oven will be on for things that need to be heated up. Please let Pastor Dan know what you plan to bring! Breakfast is at 8:30am. The doors will be open and coffee will be going at 8:00am! Please bring your mask for when we are not eating!

Beach Worship will begin on June 2!! It's hard to believe that our beach worship season is almost here! We will be meeting at the end of Ave. F in Kure Beach, out from the Kure Beach Faith Center at 7pm throughout the summer. This year the plan is to continue into mid-October. We have a great line up of musicians to lead our music again this year, so it will be another great year! Bring your beach chair, blanket or beach towel and join us! It is a great place to worship with the family so be sure to bring the sand toys for your children! We are looking forward to another great summer!

Outdoor worship takes so many hands to make it all happen! We are so blessed to have so many folks that help out after worship to pack up and put everything away! Thank you all who have pitched in to help out! We really appreciate it! We also want to give a big THANK YOU to all of you who set up on a regular basis! It is a big commitment, but without you, we couldn't have outdoor worship!

Over the last couple of months, we have had the same few faithful folks setting up for worship. Which is great...but we would love to have more people on that set up team so that the same ones didn't have to do it every week! Ideally, I would like to have at least a couple of teams to alternate weeks...or to have enough folks so that everyone only needs to set up one Sunday per month! It doesn't take long with enough help! Folks helping to set up the keyboard and sound equipment usually arrive between 9 and 9:15am. Folks setting up tables for communion and placing the bulletins and offering baskets don't really need to show up until 9:20am or so. Folks helping prepare communion usually arrive between 9:20 and 9:30am. Please let Pastor Dan know if you are willing to "join the team"! He would love to hear from you! Either call (910-619-8979) or email (pdannybeachguy@gmail.com) him!

Book Club: This month the book club is doing something different; we are reading two books. Our hope is that most people will read both and enjoy at least one of them! We will be meeting at Havana's for lunch on Monday, May 17th at noon. Everyone is invited to pick up a copy of the book(s) and join our discussion. There will be at least one extra copy in the office. Please let Eleanor Lundy know if you will be joining us at elundy@elundy.org

This Could Change Everything is about those moments in life when something happens out of your control, and your life is turned upside down. For the main character in Jill Mansell's new book, Essie, it is a private email that was only meant to go to her best friend Scarlett, but was sent to all her email contacts. At the time Essie sees this as devastating but life has a fun way of throwing a curve ball and turns this into a new life experience for Essie. It is not only Essie who has had this moment in her life, as you read the book you will find that at one time or another all the main characters have come up against this.

The plot is narrated by Essie, Zillah, Connor who all live in Zillah's house in Percival Square Bath, and Lucas who lives and owns the The Red House bar on the square. These four characters make up the four cornerstones of the plot, all are or become connected to each other. This Could Change Everything is everything a good book should be. It's a pleasure to read, has wonderful characters, a plot that has romance, humor, different twists and turns for the main characters and will keep make you forget about time as you will be consumed by the story. (Review from bookliterati.com)

The Atlas of Reds and Blues is Devi S. Laskar's debut novel which bears witness to American racism and abuse of power, tracing one woman's shift from acquiescence to resistance.

When an unnamed narrator moves her family from the city of Atlanta to its wealthy suburbs, she discovers that neither the times nor the people have changed since her childhood in a small southern town. Despite the intervening decades, the woman, known only as The Mother, is met with the same questions: Where are you from? No, where are you really from? The American-born daughter of Bengali immigrant parents, her truthful answer, here, is never enough. She finds herself navigating a climate of lingering racism with three daughters in tow and a husband who spends more time in business class than at home.

The Mother's simmering anger breaks through one morning, when, during a baseless and prejudice-driven police raid on her house, she finally refuses to be calm, complacent, polite—and is ultimately shot. As she lies bleeding on her driveway, The Mother struggles to make sense of her past and decipher her present—how did she end up here?

The author grapples with the complexities of the second-generation American experience, what it means to be a woman of color in the workplace, a sister, a wife, a mother to daughters in today's America. (Review from Goodreads.com)

From the Financial Secretary: During the month of April, we received contributions from 53 families and three visitors. The weekly range of families donating ranged from a low of 18 families to a high of 35. Three families continue to make on-line donations. About 9 families now use Bank BillPay. This month we hoped to receive $17,260 to support our Mission plan. We fell short of this goal, with actual tithes and offerings coming in at $15,469 - a deficit of $1,791.

However, our Congregation members responded to emergency needs that arose. Members contributed $803 through the Lenten mid-week offerings. This money is earmarked to assist families in Brunswick county rebuild their homes after the tornado. Additionally, our Congregation members contributed $ 683 to help the families devastated by the Paradise Cove fire. We are grateful for your generosity to support KMLC's Mission as well as the needs of our neighbors.

The First Quarter contribution statements have been sent out. If you have any questions, contact Terry Hambel at tmurtha2@aol.com.

From the KMLC Racial Equality/Justice Dialog Team:
“Open Mind – Loving Heart”

“Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow.” (Isaiah 1:17) Over the last few months we have been reflecting on how God created all humankind in his image and how the diversity of this world reflects the beauty and character of God. We reflected on our Kure Memorial Lutheran Church mission and welcome statements, which emphasize how we, as a community of faith welcome and care for all people who God has created. Beginning this month, in response to the unrest our country is experiencing, we encourage one another to dig a little deeper by opening our minds and hearts to stretching our personal perspectives.

The image to the left illustrates a beginning point for us to “open our minds” to learn about the history, difficulties and struggles our brothers and sisters of color have had in the past and continue to experience simply because of the color of their skin. Please reflect on this image. What do you think it could illustrate for us? Notice, the center of the image is the outline of a person’s mind, which is open for learning. The colors represent diversity and the beauty of all of God’s creation. The many hands from all parts of the world create the heart which surrounds the open mind. The image of the loving heart created by the hands carries the reminder that in our hearts we are to respect and uplift the dignity and humanity of every person. This, too, connects us with the verse from Isaiah. Our open minds and loving hearts working together are an inspiration for us to grow in our respect, understanding, and support of all who are in God’s family.

We invite you to explore short videos, movies, short articles, or books along with this passage from Isaiah, calling us as God’s people, to defend and support all whom God created. May these explorations help and guide us to make conscious choices that prioritize equity and inclusion for all people.

We invite you to check out the following resources that our team has come across to engage us all in this conversation. Please also share with us any additional resources you have found meaningful:

Movies: Hidden Figures (Movie about the African American, female mathematicians who were key figures in the Apollo Space program in the 1960s.)

Wilmington on Fire (Documentary about the Wilmington fire of 1898. Can be found on You Tube or Prime Video)

Books: Wilmington's Lie (a book about the race riots to overthrow Wilmington's multi-race government.)

Children's resources: I am Enough (Book for Pre-School, younger Elementary) by Keturah A. Bobo (available at NHC Public Library)

In the coming months, we will be adding to this image, which will give us a fuller picture of how we can grow in our mission to break down the walls that divide us as God's people and to advocate for unity among all of us as we read about in Psalm 133:1: "How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!"

Questions to ponder:

- ✚ Look at and ponder these bible verses from Isaiah 1 and Psalm 133.
 - What do they say about God's plan for the world he created?
- ✚ Look at and reflect on the "open mind and loving heart" image on the previous page.
 - In what way does this image illustrate an openness to see and understand one another in deeper ways?
- ✚ Think of current events that have taken place recently that have caused unrest.
 - Which of these do you think have been caused by racial tensions?
- ✚ Have you ever been in a situation where you have felt disregarded because of your age, gender, race or ethnicity?
 - If so, where have you found support?
- ✚ Have you ever experienced a situation where you have felt afraid, intimidated, worried or misjudged because of who you are or because of your appearance?
 - If so, who helped you through that situation (or situations)?

Continue the conversation: We would love to talk further about this!

Paradise Cove Fire Victims: Our Church's Mission Statement was lived out in action with the Congregation's response to the victims of the fire at the Paradise Cove complex. A check in the amount of $683.00 was presented to the American Legion Post 129 in Carolina Beach. A member of the Post noted that over $13,000 was collected to assist those residents who lost so much in that tragedy. Thanks for reaching out to these island neighbors!

Dear Families,

It is almost summer! I want to update you on our plans for Vacation Bible School this year. VBS for Preschool will be held the week of June 14-18 and Vacation Bible Day Camp for children entering grades 1-5 will be the week of July 26-30!

For preschool children ages 3-5 (entering Kindergarten), Bible school will run from 9am until 11:30am June 14-18. Our theme for the preschoolers is "Discovery on Adventure Island: Quest for God's Great Light." We will have lots of fun with some great Bible stories and learn about why they are important for us! The theme verse for the week is: "Arise! Shine! Your light has come; the LORD'S glory has shone upon you!" Isaiah 60:1

The story of Creation helps children understand how we can shine God's light of love on all creation! As children explore God's loving creation through six days of work and one day of rest, they will witness, beginning with light, how God called all of creation good. Through this experience, they will be reminded that God's purpose in creation is good. We should strive to take care of the environment God has provided. We can also care about the people around us by shining the light of love everywhere we go.

If you would like to volunteer for VBS let me know! We have a variety of ways you can help, from very simple tasks like providing some supplies to helping out each day! (Please note: Because of our staffing, all children must be potty trained at the time of VBS. Thank you for understanding!) *Deadline for registration for our preschool VBS is May 31!

For children entering grades 1-5, we will have a Day Camp program that will run from 9am-3pm July 26-30! Energetic Camp staff from Camp Agape, our Lutheran camp in Fuquay-Varina, will be here to lead it for us. For the Day Camp program This year, we are requesting a $30 deposit for 1 child or $75 deposit for a family with more than 2 children along with your registration form to hold your spot. If your child/children attend for 3 or more days, you will have the option of receiving your deposit back or leaving it as a donation, to help offset the cost of having the amazing Camp Agape Day Camp Staff at KMLC to facilitate our Vacation Bible School ministry for our older students! IF this is a financial hardship for your family, please come talk to Pastor Dan. Please note: Due to Camp Regulations, we are limited to a maximum of 32 children for Day Camp! *Deadline for registration to assure your spot is July 12! So please get your registration to us as soon as possible!

We hope you will join us for all the fun! Registration materials are attached for both programs.
