JUNE 2023 NEWSLETTER

Volume 21, No. 91

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.*

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.*

*(Jesus said) "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."
(Matthew 11:28)*

Memorial Day has come and gone. Typically Memorial Day weekend is thought of as the beginning of summer! And for many people...summer seems to be a time where work slows down...it's a time of taking vacations ...going on trips...or maybe just taking time to go to the beach to play, to rest and to get rejuvenated! I remember last summer...occasionally on a Sunday afternoon after church, Chris and I would go down to the beach to just sit and relax and enjoy the sunshine, the people, the beach and the peaceful sound of the ocean. And it was so relaxing that most often...I would fall asleep! It felt like whatever burdens I had just disappeared...at least for a while. And I found rest for my soul. Those times were so precious and needed!

Jesus knew life was difficult. And to add to the normal difficulties of life, additional weariness and heavy burdens were imposed upon them by the Roman authority and Roman law. As well as having to live according to all of the human-made religious laws back then. So Jesus was telling the people that living according to the love, comfort, compassion, grace, mercy and forgiveness of the kingdom of God, which he brought into the world...and feeling his presence in their lives...that through all of that...he would give them rest.

In our own day, there are many things that can make us weary...and feel the heavy burdens that we carry. Sometimes those are in the form of the guilt we might have of the sinful things we've done...or maybe it's our health...or financial struggles...or maybe difficulties with our jobs...or family challenges. You can probably name lots of different things that make you weary...or add to the burdens that you carry.

Jesus says, "Come to me...weary and burdened...and I will give you rest!" In other words, "I will remind you of my love for you...and that I am always with you...helping you...guiding you...forgiving you...strengthening you...reminding you that with me, all things are possible. So, rest in my presence!"

And...admittedly...that might be hard to do sometimes. But I invite you to pause and to let Jesus work in your life to give you rest from your weariness...from the burdens that weigh you down...to remind you that he is with you to guide and comfort and nurture and strengthen you for whatever lies ahead.

Surfin' on God's Grace!

Dan

Service Ministry Team: Won't You Be My Neighbor? The phrase, "Won't You Be My Neighbor?" is automatically associated with Fred Rogers and his long running children's TV program, Mister Rogers' Neighborhood. Fred Rogers projected kindness, gentleness, and humbleness. He often encouraged sharing. Our KMLC community recognizes and demonstrates the importance of being neighborly. Your response to the recent email and Bulletin notice regarding grocery supplies for our Food Pantry Box was overwhelmingly generous. The Pantry Box is fully re-stocked! Thank you so much for your food and monetary donations. A special thank you to Butch and Garner Von Cannon's Kure Estates Neighborhood group. That group has adopted our Pantry Box and is conducting quarterly food drives to support it. You are all great neighbors! Our Church Prayer List: If you have an individual on the "Friends & Family" list that appears weekly in the Bulletin, a student, or member of the Military and would like that person to receive a "Thinking of You" card from our Church, please email MJ Shalanski at maryjo.shalanski@gmail.com Thank you!

Book Club: We will meet on Monday June 19th at 5:30 PM in the Fellowship Hall to discuss The Great Believers by Rebecca Makkai. Everyone is welcome and there are extra copies of the book in the office. Please let Lynn know if you borrow a “guest” copy. Join us for fellowship, food and a usually interesting discussion.

“The Great Believers is a page turner about illness and mortality. The novel tells, in alternating chapters, about a group of friends, most of them gay men, in Chicago in the mid-to-late 1980s, and about a woman in 2015 who has gone to Paris in search of her estranged daughter. Both halves of the narrative are about senseless loss and the efforts to survive and, if possible, redress that loss. Both are about love’s power and love’s limitations.

The Great Believers is peppered with surprises, a minor wonder in a narrative so rife with dreadfully foregone conclusions. As is true of many good novels, writing about it requires considerable navigation around spoilers. Suffice it to say that in the mid-80s sections the grim reaper runs rampant, but there’s no telling who’ll be felled and who’ll be spared. The 2015 sections are, in their way, a detective story. How, after all, does a mother locate her adult daughter, knowing only that she’s somewhere in Paris?” (NYT Review)

Helping Hands @ KMLC: In 2019, the Service Team formed a group to assist members of the Congregation who needed help with everyday activities. Sometimes people needed a ride, to go shopping or to the doctor; sometimes a meal or help with laundry was needed; sometimes something unexpected came up and people didn’t know who to call. We had a group of people who were ready to help. The group was named "Care and Share" and about two dozen people participated when they were available and needed. The pandemic affected many areas of our lives and impacted this group as well. The need to provide potential assistance has not gone away, and we are in the process of reviving the group. If you are interested in being a part of our new "Helping Hands @ KMLC" group, please complete the form on page 14 and indicate how and when (days of the week) you are available. We can then set up an “availability schedule.”

If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact me. You can place your completed form in the Service Team mailbox in the Office or email it to me. maryjo.shalanski@gmail.com. Thank you for considering this opportunity to help the members of our KMLC Church family!

PRAYERS AND INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES

My Father and Myself Facing the Sun BY LAWSON FUSAO INADA

We are both strong, dark, bright men, though perhaps you might not notice, finding two figures flat against the landscape
like the shadowed backs of mountains.

Which would not be far from wrong,
for though we both have on Western clothes
and he is seated on a yellow spool of emptied and forgotten telephone cable and I recline on a green aluminum lounge,

we are both facing into the August sun
as august as Hiroshima and the autumn.

There are differences, however, if you care to discover, coming close, respectfully.
You must discover the landscape as you go.

Come. It is in the eyes, the face, the way we would greet you stumbling as you arrive.
He is much the smooth, grass-brown slopes reaching knee-high around you as you walk;
I am the cracks of cliffs and gullies, pieces of secret deep in the back of the eye.

But he is still my father, and I his son.

After a while, there is time to go fishing,
both of us squatting on rocks in the dusk, leaving peaks and tree line responsible for light.

There is a lake below, which both of us acknowledge, by facing, forward, like the sun.

Ripples of fish, moon, luminous insects.
Frogs, owls, crickets at their sound.
Deer, raccoon, badger come down to drink.

At the water's edge, the children are fishing, casting shadows from the enormous shoreline.
Everything functions in the function of summer.

And gradually, and not by chance, the action stops, the children hush back among rocks and also watch, with nothing to capture but dusk.

There are four of us, together among others.

And I am not at all certain what all this means,
if it means anything, but feel with all my being that I must write this down, if I write anything.

My father, his son, his grandsons, strong,
serene.

Night, night, night, before the following morning.

About the poet, Lawson Fusao Inada ...

Lawson Fusao Inada was born in 1938 in Fresno, California, a third-generation Japanese American. His grandparents founded the Fresno Fish Market, his father was a dentist, and his mother was a teacher. In 1942, Inada and his family were sent to internment camps, first in Fresno, then in Arkansas and Colorado; he was one of the youngest to live in the camps. He studied poetry and jazz at Fresno State University. His first collection of poetry "Before the War: Poems as they happened" was published in 1971. Inada edited the anthology Only What We Carry: The Japanese Internment Experience (2000), a major contribution to the record of the Japanese American experience. Inada was appointed Oregon poet laureate in 2006. His awards include a Guggenheim Fellowship, fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, and a Creative Arts Grant from the Civil Liberties Public Education Fund. One of his poems is inscribed on a stone at the Japanese American Historical Plaza in Portland, Oregon.

A Prayer for Juneteenth

A Commemoration by Peter Englerts

Today, we commemorate the end of slavery in America.
This day partially reminds us of the progress made.
This day also partially reminds us of the progress we have not made.
We celebrate the freedom of black lives in our nation.
We grieve that we have not correctly reconciled racism in our nation.
You created each person in Your image.
The two greatest commandments call us to love You with all our heart,
souls, and minds;
Then, to love our neighbor as ourselves.
Your love for us motivates us to love each other.
If we do not love each other, then ultimately, we have not experienced
Your love.
As much as we commemorate and celebrate Juneteenth, we grieve this day.
We mourn that our black brothers and sisters have not been loved as our neighbors.
We mourn that our black brothers and sisters have been treated less than created in Your image throughout history.
So, Lord, we confess our sins and repent.
The healing and reconciliation we desire comes from the gospel.
On Juneteenth this year, we ask You to guide our nation.
May the good news of the gospel motivate us to love each other.
May the ideals of our words match the practices of our lives.
May a fresh empowerment of Your Spirit unite us together.
Give us eyes to see and ears to hear Your will and leading. Amen.

My Summer Prayer

Walk beside me, Jesus as I begin the season of summer.

*As I work, play, enjoy family time and friendships,
may I hear Your voice within me, guiding me toward all that is right and good.*

Give me faith in your presence knowing that You walk beside me always, everywhere and in everything I do.

Gracious and loving Jesus, thank You for the gift of summertime.

May the warmth of the sun and the beauty of the season remind me daily of Your love for me.

*Allow me to enjoy every moment.
Amen*

FROM THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY

During the month of May 2023, we received tithes and offerings from 60 different families. The number of weekly contributors ranged from 19 to 31 families. Our Mission Plan is based on tithes and offerings of $18,618 for this month. We received $22,006, giving us a cushion for leaner months. KMLC members have a variety of patterns for contributing - some give weekly, others give larger checks from time to time. All in all, we keep supporting our Mission Plan, and for this, we are thankful.

Our Rice Bowl offering for May was earmarked for Soaring As Eagles, a non-profit that supports the needier children of our area with enrichment programs and family support. Thanks to your generosity, we are sending them $401.00! Thank you for your on-going support and sharing your resources for KMLC and our community.
