FEBRUARY 2024 NEWSLETTER

Volume 21, No. 87

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.*

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.*

*“They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.”
(Acts 2:42)*

Lent begins Wednesday, February 14! It seems like just yesterday that we were decorating for Christmas! This year is already going by quickly!

We will once again be gathering for our Lenten Dinner Church events in the fellowship hall on Wednesdays through Lent for worship, which includes a meal, conversation, a short bible study and Holy Communion! A sign-up sheet is available for folks to sign up to either bring a crock pot of soup, crackers, or bread for the meal. The meal is an integral part of our worship together...which really comes from the book of Acts 2:42: “They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.” It is always a very meaningful way to come together as a community of faith during this holy season and I am really looking forward to gathering again this year!

This year’s theme will be studying/discussing various biblical characters and along with the study is a soup or stew that is associated with that particular character! Perfect for our soup supper dinner events!

Below is the schedule for Ash Wednesday and the Lenten Dinner Church Bible Studies:

Ash Wednesday:

February 14 at 7pm: Worship in the sanctuary

Lenten Dinner Church Bible Study:

The following Wednesdays at 5:30:

February 21, 28 and March 6, 13 and 20

**More information on the themes of each study will be coming soon!

**This will not be a series...so you can come when you are able and not feel like you missed anything!

**These events are “family friendly”! Feel free to bring activities for your children for during the discussion time.

And while you are marking your calendars...here is our schedule for Holy Week:

March 28 at 7pm: Maundy Thursday Worship

March 29 at 7pm: Good Friday Worship

March 31 at sunrise: Community Sunrise Service with Kure Beach First Baptist Church (time to be announced!)

I hope you will join us!

Surfin' on God's Grace!

Pastor Dan

Kure Memorial Lutheran Church's Children's Ministry

Our elementary students began the new year helping us celebrate The Epiphany"! They did an amazing job participating in the chilly evening service. All were rewarded with yummy smores after.

Sunday school continues to be a success for preschool and elementary students. The elementary students are becoming a large group! We are looking into dividing them into separate classes. To make this possible we will need more Sunday School volunteers! Offering separate classes, would allow the students to learn at appropriate age level and provide the space for students..

Please reach out if this is something you are interested in, we would love for you to sit in on a class or two and see how amazing this group of children are!

Faithful Fun Friday's and Upcoming events! Magnets have been mailed out with new dates for the rest of the school year. If you haven't received a magnet, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Thanks! Christine Hughes

Book Club: This month we will again get together and discuss books we have recently received or read. At our meeting in February, we will have another 4-5 people talk about their selected books. It's a good opportunity to learn more about the group and our varied interests. Our February meeting will be on Monday, February 26th at 5:30 PM in the Fellowship Hall. Come and tell us about your favorite book and enjoy fun, fellowship, food and of course, a great discussion. Please let the office know if you can join us.

Holy Communion on the Second Tuesday of the Month! We invite you to join us on February 13 at 10:30, for a short Holy Communion Service in the sanctuary. This is an opportunity to gather in a small group setting to receive the gift of Holy Communion. And, even if you attend worship and receive communion regularly...it's a chance to gather with others and receive the gift of our Lord Jesus during the week. So mark your calendars...and if you can't make it this month...make plans to join us in January! Feel free to contact Pr. Dan as well to make other arrangements.

And because of our sponsorship, our team members can register for free and receive a polar plunge t-shirt! It is always a really fun day together. You can choose to walk a 1-mile fun walk, run a 5K, do the actual plunge into the water...or either the walk/run and plunge! Below is the link to the website to register as well as our church coupon code to use at checkout so you don't have to pay anything. You must register online...and then check in on the day of the event begins at 11am. Information about the annual "Team Feed" on Friday evening before the Plunge will be coming soon! Everyone is invited to bring an appetizer dish to share and their own beverage. It will be lots of fun! We hope you will join us for a fun night of good food, fun and conversation!

Mission Trip Informational Meeting on Sunday, February 11 immediately following worship (~11am) in the Fellowship Hall! We are excited to invite all who are interested in either learning more about or coming along on our upcoming summer intergenerational mission trip! I know it's Super Bowl Sunday! But the game doesn't begin until 6pm or something like that! And the meeting won't last too long...I promise! We will cover in more detail where we are going, what we will be doing and estimated costs of the trip.

Here’s the overview: we will be traveling to Orlando, Florida, leaving on July 2 and returning on July 9. Part of the time we will be servicing at an organization called Give Kids the World, serving families of children with life threatening illnesses. ## For My People

For My People' by Margaret Walker (1915-1988) is a poem celebrating African American culture while highlighting several hardships African Americans have faced. The poem urges African Americans in the generations to come to not allow themselves to face the same hardships their ancestors did in the form of systemic racism, sickness, and a general deprivation of rights.

For my people everywhere singing their slave songs repeatedly: their dirges and their ditties and their blues and jubilees, praying their prayers nightly to an unknown god, bending their knees humbly to an unseen power;

For my people lending their strength to the years, to the gone years and the now years and the maybe years, washing ironing cooking scrubbing sewing mending hoeing plowing digging planting pruning patching dragging along never gaining never reaping never knowing and never understanding;

For the cramped bewildered years we went to school to learn to know the reasons why and the answers to and the people who and the places where and the days when, in memory of the bitter hours when we discovered we were black and poor and small and different and nobody cared and nobody wondered and nobody understood;

For the boys and girls who grew in spite of these things to be man and woman, to laugh and dance and sing and play and drink their wine and religion and success, to marry their playmates and bear children and then die
of consumption and anemia and lynching;

For my people walking blindly spreading joy, losing time being lazy, sleeping when hungry, shouting when burdened, drinking when hopeless, tied, and shackled and tangled among ourselves by the unseen creatures who tower over us omnisciently and laugh;

For my people blundering and groping and floundering in the dark of churches and schools and clubs and societies, associations and councils and committees and conventions, distressed and disturbed and deceived and devoured by money-hungry glory-craving leeches, preyed on by facile force of state and fad and novelty, by false prophet and holy believer;

For my people standing staring trying to fashion a better way from confusion, from hypocrisy and misunderstanding, trying to fashion a world that will hold all the people, all the faces, all the Adams and Eves and their countless generations;

Let a new earth rise. Let another world be born. Let a bloody peace be written in the sky. Let a second generation full of courage issue forth; let a people loving freedom come to growth. Let a beauty full of healing and a strength of final clenching be the pulsing in our spirits and our blood. Let the martial songs be written, let the dirges disappear. Let a race of men now rise and take control.

A prayer for our country on Presidents Day 2024

(The Rabbinical Assembly & The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism).

Our God and God of our ancestors: We ask Your blessings for our country—for its government, for its leaders and advisors, and for all who exercise just and rightful authority. Teach them insights from Your law, that they may administer all affairs of state fairly, that peace and security, happiness and prosperity, justice and freedom may forever abide in our midst.

Creator of all flesh, bless all the inhabitants of our country with Your spirit. May citizens of all races and creeds forge a common bond in true harmony, to banish hatred and bigotry, and to safeguard the ideals and free institutions that are the pride and glory of our country. May this land, under your providence, be an influence for good throughout the world, uniting all people in peace and freedom—helping them to fulfill the vision of your prophet: ‘Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they experience war any more’ (Isaiah 2:4). And let us say: Amen.

*And in this year, 2024, when we will hold a Presidential election, we turn to you in faith and hope.
God of mercy, our nation is in a time of great transition.*

*With all of the injustice and fear in our world today, we ask you to inspire us and guide us as we participate in the upcoming presidential elections.
We seek a government that upholds and protects human rights and justice for all its citizens, regardless of race, class, gender, or religion.*

*Move and inspire us by your presence among us in the most vulnerable in our society.
For their tears are your tears, their pain is your pain, their suffering is your suffering.
In gratitude for the right to vote, we pray.*

(from Anna Misleh)

Let Us Love One Another
A Valentine Reflection by Joyce Rupp

Beloved, let us love one another because love is of God;
everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.
Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.
-1 John 4:7

God of all hearts, Love of all Loves, turn my hesitant heart toward the people
I find difficult to welcome into my life, especially the obnoxious and arrogant, the know-it-alls and the have-to-be-rights

Restore my inner sight to see with your eyes the people who jolt my visible sensitivity by their appearance and jarring behavior.
Forgive me for my emotional responses, and the negative, mental judgments that betray your expansive compassion.
Take my hand and accompany me when I encounter snarly, irritable, upset, and easily angered individuals.
Do not allow me to respond in like manner.

Fortify my kindness with your love when I am with do-gooders, the self-righteous, the envious, and the hypocritical.
Regenerate my faith in the goodness of humanity
when I come across betrayers, liars, cheats, and the least-trusted.

God of Love, let me see myself honestly, not apart from those I want to shun, but as another human being among them.
I, too, am in need of transformation.

Love of all Loves, grant that I may grow in greater awareness of my own dislikeable traits and disturbing limitations.

May I love others as you love them.
May I find solace in knowing all of us have a home in your all-embracing heart.
May I remember that when I love others I am loving you. Amen.

FROM THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY

During the month of January 2024, we received Tithes and Offerings from 58 families - the number of donors giving each week ranged from 17 to 25. Our new Mission Plan is based on receiving weekly Tithes and Offerings of $ 5,051. We reached our goal in only one week this month and had a monthly deficit of a little over $ 2,000. Overall, this is OK for us. January tends to be one of our slower months financially and so far, our history shows that we do pick up as the years move along. We thank everyone who has contributed to support our Mission Plan. We also thank you for your Rice Bowl Offerings - we collected $ 335 to help replenish needed school supplies at Carolina Beach Elementary School.

2023 Contribution Statements have been mailed out. If you haven't received your or if you have a question, contact Terry Hambel (tmurtha2@aol.com) or leave a message for her in the Church office.

Some good news to share: We were recently notified by PayPal that we will be receiving a grant for $ 250 from the PayPal Charity Giving Fund. The grant comes from PayPal users who select Kure Memorial as their favorite charity. If you are a regular PayPal user for on-line shopping or sending funds, you can select KMLC as your favorite charity. Go to the "My Account" page. On the right side of the page, there is a link for "My favorite charities". Click on that link, put Kure Memorial Lutheran Church in the search box and select us as one of your favorite charities.
