MARCH 2023 NEWSLETTER

Volume 21, No. 88

Our Mission Statement – As joyful followers of Jesus Christ, we welcome and care for all people. We boldly proclaim the Good News, share our faith, and love God by serving others.*

Our Statement of Welcome – Accepting those who Christ has already accepted, Kure Memorial Lutheran Church affirms that all people, regardless of race, national origin, sexual orientation, or economic status, are unconditionally welcome to our community of faith and are invited to join us in worship, fellowship, and ministry.*

FROM PASTOR DAN

“God wiped out the charges that were against us for disobeying the Law of Moses. He took them away and nailed them to the cross.” (Colossians 2:14)

“He himself bore our sins” in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; “by his wounds you have been healed.” (1 Peter 2:24)

Lent has begun! It's the season where we reflect on our brokenness and our sinfulness as we look ahead to Jesus' death on the cross to bring us forgiveness and healing and his glorious resurrection that gives us the hope and promise of eternal life!

Each year during Lent, we place this cross that you see to the left, at the front of the sanctuary. The cross is a reminder of what Jesus did for us. But that's not all- because this particular cross also comes with an invitation! An invitation for you to bring your sins...your struggles...the things that are weighing on your heart...and to “nail them to the cross” as it says in Colossians! It is symbolic of letting go of those things that weigh you down and letting Jesus take them to the grave. So from now until Good Friday you have the opportunity to “nail” or place those things that are on your heart, on the cross. You will find little purple pieces of paper in the pew pockets on the backs of the pews as well as on the small stand that is near the cross.

And then, after the Good Friday worship service as we remember the death of Jesus, we will take those papers filled with the things you've shared from the cross and everyone is invited to the courtyard, where we will burn them in a fire, symbolic of Jesus taking our sins away from us and filling us with healing and wholeness. It is a very moving tradition we have. We hope you will join us for our journey through Lent!

I hope you will join us!

Surfin' on God's Grace!

Lenten Dinner Church Events: It has been 3 years since we have been able to gather for our Lenten Dinner Church events! We invite you to join us as we gather in the fellowship hall on Wednesday evenings during Lent for worship, which includes a meal, conversation, a short bible study and Holy Communion! A sign-up sheet is available for folks to sign up to either bring a crock pot of soup, crackers, or bread for the meal. The meal is an integral part of our worship together as we read in the book of Acts 2:42: “They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.” It has been a very meaningful way to come together as a community of faith during this holy season and I am really looking forward to gathering again this year!

This year’s theme will be studying/discussing the events of Holy Week. Below is the schedule of our bible study topics for our Wednesday evenings together:

March 1 at 5:30pm: The Triumphal Entry: Palm Sunday

March 8 at 5:30pm: The Last Supper

March 15 at 5:30pm: Gethsemane

March 22 at 5:30pm: The Trial

March 29 at 5:30pm: The Crucifixion

Each week we will view slides of each of the places where these events took place. The photos were taken when I visited these sites during my trip to the Holy Land in 2017! So I’m excited to share them with you again!

Looking ahead to Holy Week and Easter: We hope you will join us for any/all of the Holy Week/Easter services!

April 2 at 10am: Palm Sunday Worship

April 6 at 7pm: Maundy Thursday Worship

Holy Communion on the Second Tuesday of the Month! We invite you to join us on March 14 at 10:30, for a short Holy Communion Service in the sanctuary. This is an opportunity to gather in a small group setting to receive the gift of Holy Communion. And, even if you attend worship and receive communion regularly...it’s a chance to gather with others and receive the gift of our Lord Jesus during the week. So mark your calendars...and if you can’t make it this month...make plans to join us in April! Feel free to contact Pr. Dan as well to make other arrangements.

Lenten Devotionals! Lenten devotionals are available for adults and families with children in the church entryway! Be sure to pick yours up the next time you are in the neighborhood!

If you plan to bring something to share for breakfast, please let Pastor Dan know at pdannybeachguy@gmail.com. Hope to see you there!

Out of the Pews: “Out of the Pews” was active for a couple of years before covid interrupted our gatherings. And now we are hoping to “re-activate” it! It is a social group for folks who consider themselves “middle age”, say 50’s- mid 70’s generally speaking ☺! We meet at people’s homes and meet for outings at various places in the community! Please join us on March 25 at 6:30 at Chris and Dan’s home (green house next to the gazebo) for a Wine & Beer Tasting event! Qualified Charitable Distributions: Did you know if you are 70 ½ or older you can contribute up to $100,000 from your IRA directly to a KMLC and avoid paying income taxes on the distribution? This is known as a qualified charitable distribution (QCD). When planning your IRA withdrawal strategy, you may want to consider making charitable donations through a QCD. A QCD is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA account, payable to a qualified charity. QCDs also can be counted toward satisfying your required minimum distributions (RMDs) as long as certain rules are met. In addition to the benefits of giving to a charity, a QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA which are taxable. You must be at least 70½ years old at the time you request a QCD. If you process a distribution prior to reaching age 70½, the distribution will be treated as taxable income. For additional information you can contact Ann-Marie (910-431-6204) or consult your tax advisor or your financial advisor.

PRAVERS AND INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES

Prayer in Celebration of Women from The African American Lectionary

We celebrate the strength, power, passion, beauty, courage, and faith of women across this world. Made in the image and likeness of God, God chose the woman to lead, support, nourish, and deliver God's glory to the earth.

We praise God for the creation of the woman.

Most merciful and all-wise God, it is by your hand that you took the rib of Adam and made woman. We laud and glorify your holy name for the wisdom, strength, faith, and courage you birthed into the heart of every woman. Teach us, O Lord, to pattern our lives, our witness, and our service after the women of scripture whom you ordained to serve and labor in your kingdom. vessels of life, these wives, these mothers, and these believers are often overlooked, choosing to relinquish their will for the uplifting of others.

We honor God for endowing the spirit of service into the heart of the woman.

We give reverence to every woman, who like the beautiful, thoughtful, mindful, and powerful women of scripture continue to defy odds, banish stereotypes, and serve in the face of oppression and tradition.

We thank God for the unselfish spirit that lives in the heart of the woman.

We honor the women of our past who were beaten, and abused because of skin color and gender.

We honor their resilience and intuition to escape and assist others with escaping.

We honor those who blazed trails and rose above the conditions of their time.

We honor those mighty women who tarried in prayer and sang the songs of Zion while their backs were lashed and their wombs mistreated.

We worship God for the memory our ancestors, mothers, and grandmothers.

We celebrate the women of today. We celebrate the sharing of their gifts, talents, and skills.

We celebrate their ability to manage the home and the office.

We celebrate their ability to serve as a public official and a Sunday School teacher.

We celebrate those who are required to be both the matriarch and the patriarch, and those who are strong enough to fight for civil equality but gentle enough to be the woman of some man's dream.

We praise God for the virtuous women who persevered through our yesterdays, influence our todays, and shape our tomorrows.

We praise God for the women of Scripture: With Miriam, who with Moses and Aaron led the people of Israel out of Egypt; With Deborah, who judged the people of Israel in truth and righteousness; With Ruth, who was an example of faithfulness; With Mary Magdalen, who first brought the good news of the resurrection; With Phoebe, deacon and leader of the early Church; With Priscilla, who labored with Aquila in the service of Christ; With Dorcas, who tirelessly served, doing good and helping the poor; With Mary the mother of Jesus, who said "yes" with no holding back;

With these, our sisters, we pray for women everywhere who see their families divided, their children sad.

We pray for women who against all odds create an environment of love and peace for their family to live in; we pray for women who, when tempted to give up, find new strength in you and continue to follow the path you have ordered.

God our God, you have made women in your own image and likeness. Teach us to trust your design and seek the divine destiny that you have for every woman in every corner of your universe.

Grant us favor and continue to protect our spirits from anything that may hinder our walk with you or our sister.

We offer this prayer to you. Amen!
